Idaho Association of Health Underwriters Announces Scott Leavitt Service Award

The Idaho Association of Health Underwriters has presented a new service award to its name sake, Scott Leavitt. He will be recognized at the Idaho Association of Health Underwriters 4th Annual Awards Banquet on Wednesday, April 14th at the Student Union Building at Boise State University.

After joining NAHU in 1995, Scott held numerous leadership positions within the organization, including president of Idaho Association of Health Underwriters (IAHU), vice-president of IAHU, regional vice president, secretary, treasurer, vice-president and president-elect. He is a recipient of the NAHU State Legislative Award, Dave Isern Lifetime Achievement Award and the NAHU Distinguished Service Award.

Leavitt began his career in the industry more than 16 years ago. He is president of Scott Leavitt Insurance & Financial Services and president and founding member of My Wellchoice+. Scott resides in Boise, Idaho with his wife Amy and their four children. Scott is also very active in his church and serves as executive secretary of his ward.

The Scott Leavitt Service Award is presented to the IAHU member who has and does give above and beyond to the entire organization; betters others in the organization first before themselves; and who supports the industry and association with great passion.
